CALL TO ORDER

Leslie Weigand called the meeting to order at 4:35 PM.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Lorene Foreman provided information on a benefit concert for the library. It would be held in the Rodriguez Annex on Nov. 4 in the evening or Nov. 5 in the afternoon. A grant from the Jefferson County Community Trust has been granted to finance this. Performers will receive a stipend. $700 of the proceeds will be set aside as seed money for future concerts. Proceeds above $700 will be donated to the Jefferson County Library Endowment Foundation. It is expected that the concert will last about two hours.

Refreshments were discussed. It was suggested that the JCLEF could provide refreshments for sale in the basement. Lorene will contact Sandy Jackson, JCLEF president, and discuss it with her.

The library board expressed its support for the concert and director Sally Beesley okayed alcohol on the premises contingent upon a properly bonded and licensed person to sell alcohol was in charge.

Crooked River Ranch. The Director reported to the board that Pam Holt, from CRR called the director to discuss the feasibility of a library in CRR. CRR is considering building a community center that would include a library. Pam and Sally discussed by phone the various options – join JCLD or DPLS or maintain and support a community library on their own.

Ruth Metz and Strategic Planning for Future Facilities

Due to an accident that Ruth's husband was injured in, the Oct. 24 meeting with her may be canceled. This will be decided later.

GOVERNANCE POLICIES

Audit. Copies of the library audit were passed out to the board members who will review it and approve or reject it next board meeting. Copies will be placed in Marie and Susan's folders. It was stated that the audit went well this year and there were no problems reported.

Calendar. It was moved and seconded (Hillis/Luther) to adjust the annual calendar to include a quarterly review of Financial Planning and Budgeting, and Financial Condition and activities, with a quarterly motion to accept the financial reports. This will replace the monthly acceptance of the financial reports that have been done before. Motion carried. Board members will still get monthly statements and are requested to keep them until they are passed at a board meeting.
