

Jefferson Co. Community Read

2010

"Hannah's Dream"

by Diane Hammond

April 16 & 17

A captivating story about an aging caretaker, his beloved elephant, and a cast of quirky characters who work at a dilapidated zoo.

Sponsors:

- Jefferson County Library District
- Jefferson County Cultural Coalition
- Rotary Club of Jefferson County
- Don and Ruth Ann Hopps

Books may be purchased for $11 at:

Art Adventure Gallery Mail Copies & More Jefferson County Library

Friday, April 16

7 pm Jeff Co. Library Annex

The Urban Elephant

This NATURE program explores the unusual problems created as the struggle to give Asian elephants a home is fought worldwide.

Chimps Inc. is a non-profit wildlife sanctuary in Tumalo, dedicated to furthering chimpanzee conservation through education.

Chimps Inc. of Tumalo

Discussion:

Large Animals in Captivity

Saturday, April 17

9-11:30 am Jeff Co. Library Annex

Writer's Workshop

"Writing from Found Materials"

(Limit 15 - Sign up in Library)

7 pm Jeff Co. Library Annex

Diane Hammond Presentation

"How a Killer Whale Became An Asian Elephant"

Diane Hammond of Bend wrote three critically acclaimed books while pursuing a career in public relations and communications. She was press secretary for the Newport Aquarium while Keiko, the killer whale star of the hit movie Free Willy, was there and then for the Free Willy-Keiko Foundation.

For more information:
541-475-3351

Jefferson County Library
www.jcld.org